Day 3: Tuba City | Window Rock | Northern New Mexico

- Travel to Tuba City, a major city in the Navajo nation.
- Continue to the Hopi Cultural Center and the area's well-preserved cliff dwellings.
- Visit Window Rock, capital of the Navajo nation. At the Code Talker Memorial, learn how the Navajo created an impenetrable code for Allied forces during World War II.

Day 4: Northern New Mexico

- Your Service Learning project today may include interacting with locals while working on initiatives that support the local Native American communities.

Day 5: Northern New Mexico | Albuquerque

- Continue your Service Learning work. Projects could include planting flower beds, improving water supply, or improving the facilities at a local school.
- Travel to Albuquerque.

Day 6: Albuquerque

- Explore the ABQ BioPark, home to a zoo, botanical garden, beach, and aquarium.
- At the Balloon Museum, learn the science behind hot air balloons. (The city is known for its annual hot air balloon festival.)
- Take in views of the Sandia Mountains during an aerial tram ride.

Day 7: Depart for home

What's included:

- Full-time Field Director
- Expert-led sightseeing tours
- Entrance fees
- Service hours
- 6 overnight stays in hotels
- Round-trip flights
- Local transportation
- Breakfast and dinner daily

What to expect on EF's Service Learning Tours

On a Service Learning Tour, you and your students work side by side with locals on community-driven projects. We partner with established non-profits and NGOs to ensure your support is both meaningful and sustainable. Through hands-on work and authentic connections to the local culture, students learn vital collaboration and problem-solving skills. And they return home inspired to make a difference in their own communities.

Students who travel on our Service Learning Tours will experience:

Meaningful service

Working side by side with locals, you'll gain insight into the challenges they face and build lasting solutions to help empower the community.

Cultural immersion

Live in the communities you serve—celebrating the area's customs and forming lasting connections with locals.

Leadership development

Your Field Director takes your service experience even further, strengthening leadership skills through activities and workshops.
